

SOCIAL NEWS OF THE DAY.

Mrs. George Davies was hostess yesterday afternoon for about seven of the society folk who had received the following invitation:

Mrs. George Davies

At Home

Monday four to six

"Dingle," Honolulu

Music

M. Raul Pereira

Dr. Gillespie entertained at a dinner party on board the Thetis last night. The table was elaborately decorated with lavender asters, violets and malle ropes intertwined with tiny electric lights.

Covers were laid for Dr. and Mrs. Trotter, Dr. and Mrs. McCoy, Dr. and Mrs. Hammel, Miss Virginia Miller, Lieut. Bothwell, Lieut. Robinson, Lieut. Scammel, Lieut. Billard and Dr. Gillespie.

The table decoration for the dinner at which Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Sheedy entertained on Saturday evening were yellow co. copels. Covers were laid for Lieut. and Mrs. Johnson, Miss Rockwell, Lieut. Scammel and Mr. and Mrs. Sheedy.

Lieut. and Mrs. Ross Kingsbury entertained at dinner on Saturday evening for several of the officers passing through on the transport Logan. The table was prettily decorated with pale pink asters. Covers were laid for Captain and Mrs. Williams, Captain Tracy, Lieut. Dulte, Miss Priscilla Elliott and Lieut. and Mrs. Kingsbury.

At the Service Bridge Club which met yesterday with Mrs. J. F. Sheedy, they rises. Japanese silk bags, were taken by Mrs. Preston and Mrs. Hawley of Fort Shafter and Mrs. Tuttle of Fort De Russy. Mrs. Sheedy's guests were Mrs. Wooten, Mrs. Neville and Mrs. Clegg. The members of the club who were present were Mrs. McAfee, Mrs. Preston, Mrs.

OVER THE TEACUPS
Society Editor.
Telephone 2793.

CALLING DAYS FOR HONOLULU.

Mondays: Punahou, College Hills, Manoa, Makiki.
Tuesdays: Waikiki, Kapio-lani Park, Kaimuki, Palolo.
Wednesdays: Nuuanu, Puu-nui, Pacific Heights. First and Third Wednesdays above Nuuanu Bridge. Second and Fourth Wednesdays below Bridge.
Fourth Wednesday: Pacific Heights.
Thursdays: The Plains.
Fridays: Hotels and town.
Saturday: Fort Shafter.
Sundays: Kaimuki, Third and Fourth Saturdays, Kamehameha Schools.

Wholly, Mrs. Francis Smith, Mrs. Tuttle, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. McCoy, Mrs. Hawley and Miss Gamble.

On Saturday night the guests at the Courtland entertained at a dance. The ballroom was prettily decorated with lavender asters and yellow flowers. Among those present were Mrs. Patton, Miss Lucy Patton, Miss McCarthy, Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Waldron, Mr. and Mrs. Bower, Dr. and Mrs. Mitchell, Colonel and Mrs. C. A. Stoble, Judge and Mrs. Monsarrat, Mrs. Munger, Mr. and Mrs. Clegg, Mr. and Mrs. Unger, Mrs. J. K. Wilder, Captain and Mrs. Case, Miss Betty Case, Dr. and Mrs. Frear, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan, Mrs. Lithson, Miss Gault, Mr. and Mrs. Sheedy, Dr. and Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Moore, Miss Dickson, Mrs. McDonald, Miss McDonald, Dr. A. B. Clark, A. B. Clark, Jr., Mr. Rock, Mr. Worell, Mr. Willis, Mr. North and others.

Mrs. Ross Kingsbury has as her house guest, her sister, Miss Priscilla Elliott, who arrived in the transport Logan on Saturday. Miss Elliott will remain in Honolulu for several months.

Miss Jessie Kaufman who is to be the house guest of Miss Harriet Hatch at San Souci arrived in the Wilhelmina this morning.

Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell Rycroft returned to Honolulu this morning in the Wilhelmina. While in town, Mrs. Rycroft will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Campbell.

Mr. A. J. Campbell who has been away from Honolulu for ten months returned this morning in the Wilhelmina.

Mrs. George Pullman and party were incoming passengers in the Wilhelmina this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Moore who with their daughters, the Miss Alice and Colla Moore, have been staying at Vida Villa, are leaving in the Lur-line tonight. On Saturday night Mrs. Evans entertained at a card party for Mr. and Mrs. Moore.

WILHELMINA COMES.

STOCKTON, Cal., Record, March 23. Miss Ella Mann, Miss C. M. Pahl and party of four will sail for Honolulu on the steamship Wilhelmina, which leaves San Francisco on the 10th of April. Others in the party are Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont of New York, Allen and Edwards, the only "court house assassins" now at large, stopped at a mountaineer's cabin and asked for food, but the mountaineer did not dare tell the detectives for some hours.

During the month of March, 130 vessels were constructed in the United States.

Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont of New York has received an anonymous letter containing a $10-bill and a cable message to be forwarded to Mrs. Pankhurst, the English suffragette, urging her to "stop inefficient warfare" and "remember the home."

valley these six people met, and in taking the different trips around the valley became very well acquainted. Then they planned a trip to Honolulu in 1912.

Passage has been engaged and arrangements made for a three weeks' trip. The party will go first to Honolulu, then to Hilo and back again to Honolulu. From the latter place they will make daily excursions over the island, going to Pearl Harbor, visiting the sugar plantations, factories and all places of interest.

THE WORLD'S NEWS CONDENSED

(Special mail report to The Star from San Francisco.)

LATEST NEWS BULLETIN. (News Originating on the Day the Steamer Sailed.)

General William Booth, head of the Salvation Army of the World, is just eighty-three years old.

Howard Gould, financier, and a party of friends were marooned over night on a sandbar off Tampa, Fla., on account of their launch grounding.

The price of beef has reached its highest point in thirty years. The increase amounts to approximately $12 on each steer.

Str Henry Blossie, an Irish baronet and wealthy land owner, has disappeared in San Francisco. Foul play is feared and the police are active.

Amundsen, the discoverer, is to send his boat, the Fram, to San Francisco next April and will himself arrive in June, 1913, to prepare for a trip to the North Pole.

Roosevelt, in Pittsburg, was vitriolic in his fraud allegations, saying that outrageous cheating was done by Taft's followers.

The New York Republican state convention has decided not to instruct its delegates, the most of whom favor Taft.

A cousin of former President Grover Cleveland has secured a divorce from his wife in San Francisco.

The Mexican government is endeavoring to force a duty of $20 each on the guns sent by the United States to American citizens in Mexico City.

Charles W. Elliot, former president of Harvard, has sailed with his party from Shanghai and is going to Peking.

The San Francisco immigration officials have deported a wealthy German, Leopold Shipman, who left his family in Berlin and eloped to the Coast with a young German girl.

A fight is on in San Francisco for the removal of several of the old cemeteries to a point beyond the city limits.

EASTERN NEWS. (Originating East of the Mississippi River.)

Captain Thos. F. Carter, U. S. A., retired, chief engineer of the battleship Brooklyn at the battle of Santiago, died suddenly at Versailles, Kentucky.

Rear Admiral E. Peary, discoverer of the North Pole, is of the belief that both Amundsen and Scott have attained the South Pole, the British explorer being one month behind the Norwegian.

Railroad heads have made secret visits to President Taft to appeal against the Panama Canal bill which prohibits railroad ownership of steamship lines, and to urge the placing of all steamship lines under the control of the interstate commerce commission.

Governor Woodrow Wilson strongly denies the accusation that he has ever failed to vote the Democratic ticket.

Roosevelt is making a campaign tour of Pennsylvania and Illinois. Allen and Edwards, the only "court house assassins" now at large, stopped at a mountaineer's cabin and asked for food, but the mountaineer did not dare tell the detectives for some hours.

During the month of March, 130 vessels were constructed in the United States.

Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont of New York has received an anonymous letter containing a $10-bill and a cable message to be forwarded to Mrs. Pankhurst, the English suffragette, urging her to "stop inefficient warfare" and "remember the home."

English suffragette, urging her to "stop inefficient warfare" and "remember the home."

ber the heroism of a batta lion of women in China."

Thousands gathered at Knoxville, Tennessee, at the funeral of Senator Robert Love Taylor (Fiddling Bob).

The Pere Marquette Railroad Company has passed into the hands of receivers. There will be no change in the management.

The Democrats are going to fight on the economy lid in Congress and a clash is expected on the army bill that may delay adjournment of Congress.

President Taft will sign a bill creating a Children's Bureau in the Department of Commerce and Labor for the purpose of collecting data relating to all phases of child life.

Woodrow Wilson is said to have carried Wisconsin by a majority of 12,000 out of a total vote cast of 40,000.

Eather Mercy has won a $2500 suit against the dean of women of the University of Chicago for slander. Miss Mercy was a student at the institution.

An attempt is being made to save the life of Clarence Richeson, the minister sentenced to death for killing his fiancée.

The North German Lloyd line has announced a through passenger and freight service between Bremen, San Francisco and Tacoma when the Panama canal is opened.

The government is beginning to advertise for sale supplies and equipment no longer needed for the building of the Panama canal.

A bill has been introduced in Congress to grant a pension of $100 a month to Mrs. Sarah Brandon of Jacobshurg, Ohio, who furnished sixteen sons to fight in the Civil War.

The failure of organized labor to rally to the support of Roosevelt is traced to his "open shop" order in 1903 in which he championed the case of an employee in the government printing department debarred from work by the union.

The "Great American Circuit" for aeroplanes is to be organized by the Aero Club of America. The circuit of 1810 miles will begin and end at Chicago.

Walter J. Snyder, a New York editor, was found dead in his apartment, stabbed by his wife's scissors. She claims that the injuries were entirely accidental.

Governor Woodrow Wilson's suitcase, containing political papers, as well as necessary clothing, was stolen from a hotel in Chicago.

The steamer Ontario of the Merchants and Miners' line is afire near the Montauk Point lightship off Long Island. There is small hope of saving the ship, but life-savers are prepared to rescue the passengers and crew.

La Follette has termed the statement of Governor Johnson of California, in which he claimed to have switched to Roosevelt only after La Follette had been withdrawn by Houser, "cowardly perversion of fact."

William R. Hearst is charged with entering into an unlawful combine to procure the contract for the use of the Empire voting machine in the coming Chicago election.

Frederick O. Beach, a millionaire society man of New York, is charged with an attempt on the life of his wife, Mrs. Camilla Beach, at their winter home at Aiken, South Carolina.

Frederick A. Low leaped with his parachute from the roof of the Bankers' Trust building, New York—a forty-one-story building—and, dropping 400 feet, landed on the roof of the sub-treasury.

Senator Heyburn of Idaho attacked the newspapers of the country in a debate in which he proposed the reduction in price of the Congressional Record to popularize its circulation.

Mayor Gaynor will throw the first ball at the opening of the baseball season in New York.

Floods are increasing in the region of the Mississippi. The Reelfoot levee has given way and the scattered villages of that district are in grave danger.

Percy G. Williams has sold his vaudeville theaters in New York and Brooklyn. It is reported that B. F. Keith is the purchaser at $5,000,000.

Testimony will be taken in San Francisco of all the witnesses produced in the $250,000 libel suit brought by Francis J. Heney against Wm. H. Crocker in New York. Among the witnesses will be Rufus Schmitz, Calhoun, Langdon and Phelan.

The detectives who are seeking the De Sabia jewels stolen in San Francisco a month ago believe they have traced them to New York and hope soon to recover them.

JURY AWARDS DAMAGES FOR DEATH OF HINDOO WORKMAN. A jury sitting in Superior Judge Sturtevant's court yesterday assessed the Southern Pacific Company $500 as damages for the death of Jewa a Hindoo laborer, who was killed by one of the company's trains in October of 1909. This the largest verdict ever returned in this State for the death of a Hindoo, verdict fine.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

The only baking powder made from Royal Grape Dream of Tartar

No Alum, No Lime Phosphate

similar cases having ranged from $350 to $1200.

Jewna was employed as a section hand and was working near Crockett when he was killed. Four of his companions were injured at the same time.

Suit for $25,000 damages was brought by Attorneys H. F. Marshall and W. J. Thompson on behalf of the administrator. The case has been on trial in department 8 since Monday morning.

DELEGATES WERE THERE. If Halewa were not a better place than the beach or the hilltops it is not likely the visiting and local delegates would have spent Sunday there. It was selected because the climate is full of inspiration; it gives energy to the wornout system and imparts that which promotes good fellowship. There will be no trouble come to a man who has regenerated in the climate and pleasant waters at this delightful resort. "Come in, the water's fine."

SALE OF TOWELS THIS WEEK AT JORDAN'S

LATEST FICTION

We have a large stock of all the New Spring Fiction. A Number of Books by the Most Popular Authors have just been published.

The Crossroads Bookshop, Ltd.

Young Hotel Building

Special

Bedspreads

A choice line of Crocheted and Honeycomb Spreads at the following prices:

Regular $1.25	Special 95c each
Regular $1.50	Special $1.25 each
Regular $1.75	Special $1.35 each
Regular $2.75	Special $1.95 each

N. S. Sachs' Dry Goods Company, Ltd.

Special

Ladies' Linen Dusters

These garments are all well tailored and cut on the new RAGLAN lines. THREE QUALITIES.

$6.00
$6.50
$7.50 Special $4.75